STATUS SUMMARY

Reference is made to the Report on Individual Under Supervision signed by the Court on June 24, 2022. Since then, the Court has scheduled status conferences to address Mr. Colon's compliance with prescription medications. Mr. Colon's clinical team has made several adjustments in the pharmaceutical interventions based off his reported side-effects; however, Mr. Colon's clinical team continues to express concerns about his truthfulness related to the psych-medications, as well as his resistance towards the directive to take them. According to Mr. Colon's prescriber, "it is challenging to engage his cooperation and obtain accurate information from him." He has also refused any further adjustment or increase in dosage, which would allow for an injectable conversion. In response, a Genomind test was ordered and completed which will allow the clinical team to understand more accurately, and confirm, potential side effects.

On January 18, 2023, I received information from Mr. Colon's mother that his behavior at the residence has become increasingly aggressive and disruptive. She noted that Mr. Colon has been spitting and urinating on the floor and kicked or punched holes in his bedroom wall. In response to this change in behavior, I conducted a home visit. I observed the damage in the bedroom, and Mr. Colon admitted to the behaviors reported by his mother. In consultation with Dr. Flax, it was determined that Mr. Colon would complete an evaluation for a higher level of care, and in return, Mr. Colon would be permitted to remain at his parent's residence. Mr. Colon reports that he is taking his medications as prescribed and physical inspections of the medications are consistent with dosage requirements. He states the change in his behavior is a direct result to "triggers" such as "loud noises" which include his parents walking up and down steps, as well as his father's coughing.
